

Jennifer Brindley Ubl

Professional Summary

I am a contemporary portrait photographer in studio year-round in Milwaukee, WI, and spend the spring months focused on storm chasing and tornado research in the United States.

Professional Accomplishments

Presentations

- Minnesota Severe Storms Conference 2018
- Indiana Storm Chasers Convention 2016
- Indiana Storm Chasers Convention 2015
- National Tropical Severe Weather Conference 2014

Publications

- “Capturing the Storm” biographical article in Creative Nonfiction Magazine - Winter Issue 2016 by Laura Jones
- “What to do when Monsters Storm?” WELT DER WUNDER Magazine, Germany, September 2013
- “On the road with the storm chasers” – The London Telegraph – April 3, 2013 by Phillip Sherwell

Projects

- Multi-year tornado research project with Skip Talbot and Dr. Anton Seimon
- Consultant and Artist/Art contributor for short film ‘STORMCHASER’, directed by Gretl Clagget
- IMAX film “Extreme Weather” support crew for armored TIV and Doghouse chase vehicles
- Co-founded non-profit organization Storm Assist to raise money for tornado victims

Film / Television / Radio / Podcast appearances

- National Geographic Explorer TV Series – Episode “Death from Above” (working title) in pre-production
- “Ride or Die” – New Hampshire Public Radio – story by Jimmy Gutierrez – May 24th, 2018
- “Women in Chasing” Ep. 52 – Interview on Storm Front Freaks Podcast – May 7th, 2018
- “Storm Chasing: The Anthology” – Documentary film by Blake Naftel - 2016
- “The Burning Passion” – The Ghost Train Podcast – January 11, 2015
- “Mother Nature, She Awakens” – The Ghost Train Podcast – April 5, 2015
- Storm Assist 2014 DVD/Blu-ray charity production – Narrator - 2014
- “The Road to El Reno” – Documentary Short film by Tony Laubach - 2013

Employment History

2016-2018	Owner	Jennifer Brindley Portrait Studio, West Allis, WI
2011-2018	Owner	Boudoir Milwaukee, Milwaukee, WI
2011-2018	Owner	The Face of a Storm, Milwaukee, WI
2007-2017	Owner	JBe Photography Studio, Milwaukee, WI

Career Highlights

Documented largest tornado on record (2.6 miles wide, 301mph top wind speeds) 5/31/13 El Reno, OK
Total number of tornadoes documented and witnessed: 45 | First tornado documented in 2007
Average storm chasing travel miles per year: 20,000